ASH Society of Hematology \(ASH\) Hematology Opportunities for the Next Generation of Research Scientists

Deadline: 16-Jan-24

Amount: $5,000 student stipend and a $1,000 travel allowance

The ASH Hematology Opportunities for the Next-Generation of Research Scientists Award (HONORS) is intended for medical students and residents (trainees who have not yet entered a hematology-related training program) in the US, Canada, or Mexico with an interest in hematology research. Applicants must be a member of ASH or have a membership application pending at the time of submission and must find a supervisor who is an ASH member of good standing. The award will provide a $5,000 stipend to conduct either a short hematological research project (3 months maximum), or a long hematological research project (3 to 12 months). Successful applicants will also receive an $1,000 travel allowance to attend two years of ASH annual meetings. All recipients must submit a final report. For further application guidelines, visit their website (link above).

Nis Schmidt History of Surgery Prize

We are delighted to invite paper submissions on the History of Surgery from trainees for the Nis Schmidt History of Surgery Prize.

Dr. Schmidt is a UBC Department of Surgery Clinical Professor Emeritus who has generously endowed an award to stimulate interest and documentation in the history of surgery. A monetary prize is awarded annually to a trainee in the Department of Surgery for the best publishable grade paper on the subject of surgical history. The paper can address a topic of local, national or international interest in any field of surgery - biographical, developmental, clinical, technical, educational and ethical and is open to undergraduate medical students and residents in any surgical discipline. The winning paper will be presented at the Department of Surgery Grand Rounds on April 10th, 2024.

See: <http://surgery.med.ubc.ca/about/awards/> for information on past winners.

Please forward your submissions to valeria.kolesova@ubc.ca before February 1st, 2024.

Please email valeria.kolesova@ubc.ca if you have any questions about the award.
